The Best Place... For An Adventure Into The Unknown

That's how Celtic flautist Nuala Kennedy describes Voyage De Nuit, her collaboration with Philippe Guidat, an award-winning French guitarist who fuses flamenco and jazz with contemporary composition. Inspired by 'the ups and downs of life in a beautiful world', the pair are joined for this Tune-Up Tour by Diego Landivar, a Bolivian percussionist, Mario Caribe, a Brazilian double bassist and Scottish National Jazz Orchestra composer, and Luke Daniels, a contemporary folk composer and accordionist. The ensemble's 18-date tour ends at Perth Theatre on June 22.
